Welcome to Zion

A unique new wedding venue
south of the river

Zion is a special place – and not just because it’s a charming old church turned amazing community arts space.

We care more about what makes people happy than what makes the most money – we’re a not-for-profit social enterprise, after all.

So, we don’t sell production-line wedding packages with all the associated terms and conditions.

Instead, we’ll give you the freedom to design your day with help from our highly creative wedding planner, Sereena.

Freedom means flexibility. So, we can say ‘Yes’ to any experienced caterer of your choosing – and your caterer will be more than welcome to use our professional kitchen.

We’re also happy to flex our space to the most individual of wedding themes/decor – you might be dreaming of full-blown fairytale romance or a laid-back, festival vibe... Sereena can help you refine your ideas - even better, she’s included in the price!

Oh, and just let us know if you’ll be bringing a playlist or a seven-piece band on the day!
